Born to Love

Memoirs of an Ageless Senior

“My life has been like an unbroken thread weaving a tapestry of events, establishing the pattern that commissioned my life.”

“ . . . COMMUNICATOR OF ETERNAL TRUTH . . . AGELESS, JUST LIKE SHE IS.”

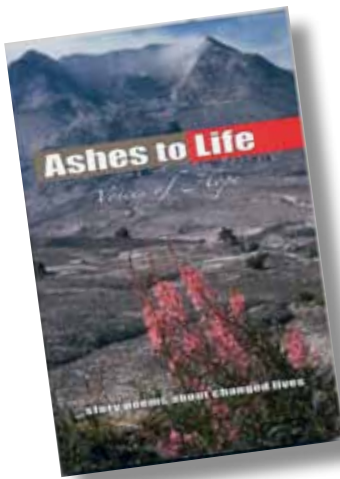

“Dr. Phillips is a most precious lover of God and lover of people. As I see it, her memoirs are the classroom of her life’s learning in the Spirit. We are being taught well. You get a taste of one woman’s life and prayers being poured out into her family, friends, and countless others. No one is a stranger to Dr. Phillips and I am honored to be called her friend.

I have heard the expression used, teacher of “present truth.” Well, Dr. Phillips is a communicator of eternal truth. It is ageless, just like she is! Her heart longs for all people of every kindred, tribe and nation to know that we are all family and that we belong to God and also to each other.

When you read her memoirs, you feel and desire the same passionate pursuit after God and His presence as she does. You identify with the life long struggles in her own humanity. We all have them and you will eventually see and hear yourself written in her memoirs. She is transparent, shameless and even ruthlessly honest as she shares her prayers, reflections and inner most thoughts out loud in pen and ink.

Born to Love is freeing, life-giving and transforming and graced with hope. You are reminded that no matter the weakness or failure you might have experienced, the Lord will give us another chance to change no matter how hard it looks or feels.”
